We've also included 6 A6 trackers for you to use.

Set any values that work for you. There's also an optional "category" line.
You can use them or swap any out for your favorite creators and games.

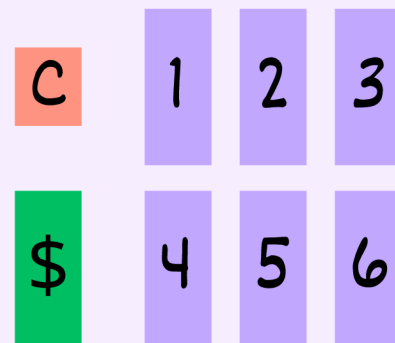

How to play:

Get your funds together. If desired, have varying amounts shuffled into your money pile or use change instead of bills.

Line up your chosen 6 trackers as normal in 2 rows of 3.

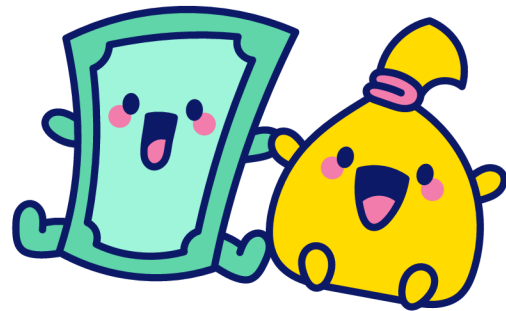

Start at tracker 1 and draw a card. Follow the card instructions. Then move to the next tracker and draw a card. Repeat as you move through your trackers.

Let the savings mania begin!

Some tips and tricks:

- If you get confused, do what makes sense to you.
- If you complete a tracker and have funds left over, choose another tracker or run a play again. It's up to you!
- If you get a negative card and there are no funds on the tracker, leave the card as a lien to pay when the tracker receives money.
- If on tracker 1 and you get a reverse roll, reverse to tracker 6.
- Watch Jenn or April play every Monday to get a feel for how a run looks.

Three overlapping 100 Euro banknotes are shown, each featuring a cartoon bee character in the center. The banknotes are pink and green, with the number '100' in the top left corner and a small '100' in the bottom right corner. The bee character is yellow with a smiling face, wearing a pink collar, and has two antennae. The banknotes are arranged in a slightly overlapping manner, with the top one partially covering the middle one, and the middle one partially covering the bottom one.
